

Bollywood icon Shraddha Kapoor has a pertinent question for photo editors

Bollywood star Shraddha Kapoor, who was last seen in “Stree 2,” has a very interesting query for all the Photo editors of the world. On Tuesday, the actress took to her Instagram, and shared a series of pictures from her photoshoot. In the pictures captured in mid-close up, the actress can be seen fully decked up wearing a blue coloured top, as she rounded up her looks with demi-fine jewellery from her own brand.

She wrote in the caption, “Yeh photoshop wale maathe ka til kyun nikal dete hain”. The actress is also known for her wit and quirkiness, and her posts on social media are a testament to the same.

Shraddha was recently seen devouring “gajar ka halwa” while getting ready, seated on her make-up chair in her make-up room. The actress took to her Instagram recently, and shared a video featuring 3 pictures of herself enjoying the carrots in different forms. The first picture shows the actress dolled up as she sat in her make-up chair with her team behind her amidst the shooting chaos. She can be seen enjoying a bowl of “gajar ka halwa”. The second picture shows her enjoying a glass full of carrot juice, as she smiles for the camera. The third picture shows her with a plate of carrot sandwich.

Earlier, the actress had dropped a series of pictures in which she was seen indulging in some chakli and chivda. The actress was seen dressed in comfortwear with floral patterns in the pictures, which also featured her furry friends, Shyloh and Small. One of the pictures also had a bound script out of the focus in the background.

➔ Shraddha Kapoor poses during the trailer launch of her film ‘Thamma’ in Mumbai on Sept.26, 2025.

Agence France-Presse

MUMBAI

Bollywood star Shraddha Kapoor is also known for her wit and quirkiness, and her posts on social media are a testament to the same

Prior to this, the actress, who keeps on making headlines for her rumoured relationship with Rahul Mody, dropped a set of sun-kissed photos of herself spending the weekend relaxing on her couch, Shraddha asked an adorable question in the caption.

Meanwhile, on the work front, Shraddha Kapoor is set to voice the animated character of Judy Hopps in the Hindi version of “Zootopia 2.” Bringing the beauty of her cuteness through her voice, Shraddha seems to be the perfect choice to portray the lovable Judy. Announcing the news, Disney India took to their social media account on the 7th of November and shared an adorable poster of “Zootopia 2” featuring Shraddha and Judy.

The actress is set to return in “Stree 3,” which is scheduled for an August 2027 release. She also has the fantasy trilogy “Naagin” in the pipeline, in which she will essay the titular role. Further, Shraddha will also be seen in the biopic of legendary Marathi folk performer Vithabai Narayangaonkar. The movie has been titled “Eetha,” where she will be playing the tutorial role. The actress, as per reports, has started her training in Lavani, a traditional Maharashtrian dance form, for the same. The film is based on the inspiring journey of dancer Vithabai Narayangaonkar, who was one of Maharashtra’s most revered Tamasha performers. The production for the film officially kickstarted on November 1, 2025.

Indo-Asian News Service

Sreejish pays emotional tribute to SIBF in debut book

SHARJAH: The 44th Sharjah International Book Fair (SIBF) concluded with a 12-day programme that drew 1,400,730 visitors from 206 countries, reinforcing Sharjah’s status as a major global hub for culture, books, and industry exchange. Under the theme “Between You and a Book,” the fair delivered one of its most internationally diverse editions, with 2,350 publishers and exhibitors from 118 countries, and a rights-trading environment unmatched anywhere else in the world.

The SIBF welcomed Inaam Kachachi, Banu Mushtaq, Omar Shahid Hamid, Ashia Ismail-Singer, Stacy Willingham, Daniel G. Miller, Jeffrey Mason, Dr. Julie Smith, E. Santhosh, K. Satchidanandan, Payal Arora and at the same time the Writers’ Forum of SIBF was bursting with joy and energy. The Writers’ Forum gives an opportunity to young and aspiring writers to release their book.

On the day one of SIBF, Sreejish Sarada Sreekantan Nair, a news presenter with Dubai Vartha, released his maiden book. “Aksarak-kadalile Veliyettam” (“The High Tide in the Sea of Letters”). Written in Malayalam, the book is a wonderful tribute to the SIBF. Adorned with some wonderful photos of SIBF and amazing facts, the book is a great tribute to the SIBF, SBA and the Sharjah Ruler.

The beauty of this book is that those who can’t even read the language can enjoy it while turning the pages. It can be consider as collector’s item. The book was officially launched by Deepa Ganesh, General Manager of Dubai

Vartha, who handed a copy to young singer Ravishankar. Nissar Sayed, Chief Editor of Dubai Vartha, delivered the keynote address. Writer K.P. Sudheer, M.C.A. Nasser (Head of Editorial and Middle East Operations, Media One), Pun-nakkan Muhammed Ali, Ahmed Shareef, K.V. Shamsudheen, Shaji Narikkolli, M.A. Shahnaaz, ➔ Sreejish Sarada Sreekantan Nair (3rd from right) released his maiden book at the SIBF on Nov.5, 2025.

Kamal Kassim/Gulf Today

Anoop Keecheri, Ameena Nissar, and others extended their felicitations.

Sharing his happiness over the release of his book, Sreejish while talking to the Gulf Today, said, “My book can be considered as the first comprehensive book on Sharjah International Book Fair in Malayalam. It took almost a year to me to complete this book.”

Sreejish has been covering the book fair for around six years. He has covered innumerable number of authors in all these years. Talking about that he said, “I never aspired to write a book but after spending time as a reporter at the SIBF, I felt an urge to share my experiences in a book and that’s how my book was born.”

He said, “That’s why I give full credit to SIBF for inspiring me to become a writer.”

He looked visibly emotional while talking about the birth of his book, he apprised, “I have been attending the book fair since 2019, and in 2021, I was here to cover the 40th edition of SIBF and on the day one, I was blessed with a baby girl. It was a great moment for me as a father. Therefore, the book fair will always be an emotional memory for me.”

He is getting lots of praise for his effort. He looked excited to bring his second book when SIBF returns next year. He shared, “I will continue my work. This is just the beginning for me not the end.”

I am planning to come up with my second book next year and hope to release at the 45th edition of SIBF. I would like to gift the book to my daughter when she turns 5, he added.

A 190-page book has detailed account of book fair from 2019 to 2024. He revealed, “I have mentioned how many writers have attended the event from 2019 to 2024, and how many writers from India has graced the red carpet of the book fair.”

Praising Sharjah Ruler, he said, “He is a great leader. I have mentioned how the Sharjah Ruler has inspired and helped publishers and exhibitors of SIBF while the entire world was going through COVID-19 menace and the event was very successful that year also.” I am in awe of SBA for organizing such a wonderful evident in Sharjah, he concluded.

Raghib Hassan, Staff Reporter